IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATUE AT BOMBAY
NAGPUR BENCH, NAGPUR.

Writ Petition No. 530/2007

Smt. Archana Anoopsingh Parihar.. Vs.. The M. S. E. D.Company Ltd. And others.

Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders.	Courts or Judge's Orders.

Shri Annop Parihar Advocate for petitioner.
Shri A. M. Quazi, Advocate for respondent No.1.
Shri S. P. Kshirsagar, Adv. For R. Nos. 2 & 3.

CORAM : A. B. CHAUDHARI, J.
Dated : 21/09/2007

Heard Mr. Parihar, the learned counsel for petitioner, Mr. Quazi, the learned counsel for respondent No.1 and Mr. Kshirsagar, the learned counsel for respondent Nos. 2 & 3.

The learned counsel for the petitioner raised several factual contentions before me. He also took me through the various documents on the record. Having gone through the impugned orders, I find that the relief as prayed by the petitioner in prayer clause (d) is partly allowed on the representation preferred by the petitioner before the Electricity Ombudsman, Mumbai. Further it is held that the petitioner is not liable for making payment of arrears of outstanding dues to the tune of Rs. 10,263/-. By virtue of impugned orders, now what is only to be done, as stated by Mr. Quazi, the learned counsel for respondent No.1, is to make payment of Rs.2,000/- and odd by way of refundable security deposit plus other miscellaneous charges for obtaining new meter.

In view of the statement made by Mr. Quazi that a small amount of Rs.2,000/- and odd is required to be paid for obtaining new meter, I do not think, it is necessary for me to deal with the factual contentions raised by Mr. Parihar, the learned counsel for the petitioner. The findings of fact recorded by the Authorities below do not suffer from any error.

In view of this, I am not inclined to interfere with the same. The petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.

The petitioner undertakes to make the payment of security deposit within a week from today. Mr. Quazi, the learned counsel for respondent Na.1 assures this Court that new meter will be installed within four weeks thereafter & that till then there will be no disconnection.
